

Late 1930's Honus Wagner Model Honus Wagner Sporting Goods

This is an extremely rare model. You can't read the Honus Wagner facsimile endorsement because the exterior leather is terrible. It's stiff and alligatored. The interior, however, is very smooth with no flaws. Glove is a bit stiff...$150

1910's Plum & Khaki Green Grommet Web

Great glove with very supple exterior leather. The interior feels great but does have a hole up at the tip of the thumb tunnel. The plum color is unique and the green binding contrast if beautiful. It came from Maine in the 1990's.....$125

1940's Double Buckle Strap

This is a unique glove. It's the only one I have ever seen. Too bad the condition leaves you wanting for more. I haven't been able to upgrade it in the nearly 20 years I've had it. The inside lining is horrible. Don't get this if you want to put it on. Get it if you like rare gloves. This would be a great project glove.....$125

1920's Grommet Laced Webs

This is a very unique and extremely rare high quality grommet web style. This one also has a terrible lining but it's a tough one and for the rare and unique glove collector. Glove properly relaced.....$600

1930's JC Higgins 1661 Xpert Glove & Ball

This is a late 1930's JC Higgins Top of the line set consisting of the Xpert Professional Model glove and Xpert Official ball. It features finger welting similar to the Spalding Pro Form. It has a super smooth and perfect lining and supple exterior leather. Beautiful condition inside and out.....$195
