

Baseball Glove Collector.com

1910's Victor Full Web

This one just feels good. You'll want to put it on your hand because of the super soft lining and nice feel. It has a nice Victor S.G. & Co. incised button and is adult size and quality. The only flaw is the faint ink in the fold on the back of the web.....$185

1910's Hudson Full Web

This is a Club Special model with a great feeling half lining. The only flaw is the two letters on the back.....$195

1910's/20's Kelley How Thompson S26 Full Web

This is an extremely rare model. It has lots of silver left in the stampings. The die cuts in the web are factory. There is a tear at the button hole of the wrist strap.....$150

1910's A.J. Reach Full Web

This is a beast of a full web. It's absolutely top of the line in quality and about as big as a full web gets. It's big, heavy and extremely supple. It has a nice A.J. Reach tag and button. The lining is great too.....$250

1900's/10's Spalding Patched Pocket Full Web

This is a cool looking patched pocket early repair Spalding full web. It has the A.G. Spalding & Bros. incised button and the early black Spalding tag. The lining, although a bit rough looking, actually feels great on the hand. It's a character glove for sure..... $195